

HOW DOES A WPRA ATHLETE GET TO THE GAMES

WHAT ARE THE WAYS TO BE ELIGIBLE TO ENTER?

- Be in the Top 10 of the WPRA World Standings as of July 5, 2017
- Be the 2017 Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion (from the 2016 circuit season)
- Be the 2016 Year End Circuit Champion from one of the 12 WPRA circuits
- Be the current leader of the Resistol Rookie Standings as of July 5, 2017
- Be in the Top 4 of combined points from all the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo Trial Events
- Be in the Top 4 from the WPRA qualifier event, scheduled for July 18th at the new Days of '47 Arena

*If any of the above does not enter, the next highest ranked contestant in that category who has entered will be placed in that position. If the position is not filled using this procedure, the position will be filled based on 2017 World Standings as of July 5, 2017

**The above indicates the fill order; a contestant will qualify in only one category

HOW ARE POINTS AWARDED AT THE TRIAL EVENT RODEOS?

- Points will be awarded based on ten (10) points per number of places paid by the Trial Event rodeo. For example, a rodeo with four (4) monies paid, 1st place will receive forty (40) points (or 4 x 10) and each placing after, ten (10) less points. For a rodeo with eight (8) monies paid, 1st place will receive eighty (80) points (or 8 x 10) and each placing after, ten (10) less points. Rodeos with multiple rounds, points are allocated based on the average only.
- Utah Trial Event rodeos are worth double points. So for a rodeo with four (4) monies paid, 1st place will receive eighty (80) points (or 4 x 20) and each placing after, twenty (20) less points. For a Utah rodeo with eight (8) monies paid, 1st place will receive one hundred sixty (160) points (or 8 x 20) and each placing after, twenty (20) less points. Rodeos with multiple rounds, points are allocated based on the average only.
