- This rodeo is part of the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo
 - What is the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo? It is an annual bonus that pays a $1,000,000 cash award to any one eligible athlete or collection of eligible athletes who wins the Event Championship of the same discipline in any three consecutive WCRA designated Major Rodeos. For complete eligibility details please refer to the WCRA – Triple Crown of Rodeo Rules at www.wcrarodeo.com or click Triple Crown of Rodeo
- Procedure to Compete:
 - Entries will be open to all eligible athletes. Entry eligibility will be validated based on the qualification parameters listed on the chart at the end of this document. Any entries other than those individuals will be placed on an alternate list. All entries will be taken through the Rodeo Entry Tool (www.entrytool.com) and will include a DO47CGR Contestant Agreement which athlete will be required to complete and digitally sign. To enter, athlete must be registered as a user in the WCRA Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ), and if an athlete has not participated (earned a minimum of 15 points) in WCRA Segment 8, he or she must pay a $300 fee and must nominate the DO47 rodeo which costs $200 to do so. To register and nominate, go to app.wcrarodeo.com or click HERE Look for additional entry information, such as entry dates and times, to be provided closer to June.

- Performance Preference Priorities:
 - Preferences for the Semi-Final performances for all 32 athletes in each discipline, will be determined based on priority from the final audited standings of the WCRA Segment 8 Leaderboard. Segment 8 closes as of 11:59pm CT, June 27, 2021.
 - Team Roping preferences for the Semi-Final performances will be determined on priority of the confirmed teams' combined point total from the final audited standings of the WCRA Segment 8 Leaderboard. Segment 8 closes as of 11:59pm CT, June 27, 2021.
- Sanctioning: The rodeo is not currently sanctioned by anyone other than the PBR (bull riding).
- Notes for Team Ropers:
 - Headers and Heelers are qualified separately. The 32 entered and qualified headers must rope with the 32 entered and qualified heelers.
 - You may qualify only once as a header and once as a heeler.
 - After pairing deadline, the #1 team based on combined team WCRA Leaderboard points will be seeded directly into the Gold Medal Round.
 - All references to a Team Roping Leaderboard position will be based on the team's combined point total.
- Notes for Bull Riders:
 - All bull riders must be a current member of the PBR and must be registered with the WCRA in order to compete.
 - Bull riders will earn PBR points toward the 2021 PBR World Standings. Velocity Tour points criteria will be used.
 - PBR helmet rules will be enforced. For complete details on the helmet rule refer to PBR Official Rule Book.

FORMAT (PLEASE NOTE THE UPDATED FORMAT FOR 2021)

- Four (4) Semi-Final performances and one (1) Gold Medal Round. 32 contestants will be qualified to compete in each discipline. The Semi-Finals will consist of four (4) separate performances with eight (8) contestants in each discipline of each performance. The one (1) highest score/fastest time from each discipline of each performance will advance to the Gold Medal Round along with the three (3) highest scores/fastest times overall, from all four combined Semi-Final performances that have not yet advanced. In addition, the #1 ranked athlete in each discipline (for team roping it is highest ranked team after pairing) of the final audited standings of the WCRA Segment 8 Leaderboard will be automatically qualified for the Gold Medal Round making total of eight (8) contestants in each discipline to compete in the Gold Medal Round. Scores/times from the Semi-Final performances will NOT carry forward to the Gold Medal Round (only to break ties). For complete rules, refer to the DO47CGR Contestant Agreement, DO47CGR Ground Rules and WCRA Competition Rules.
