FAQ's for Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo

1. What time do gates open?
   a. The Young Living Frontier Fan Zone is free and opens at 4 PM daily July 19-24.
   b. The Days of '47 Arena opens for the rodeo at 7 pm.

2. How long does the Rodeo last?
   a. The rodeo begins at 8 pm sharp and will last around 2.5 hours.

3. Can I make the train after the rodeo?
   a. Yes, the Green Line will be running

4. What age child has to have a ticket?
   a. Ages 2 & Older must have a ticket to attend. Children under the age of two (2) must be seated on an adult's lap and not interfere with the sightlines of other guests

5. If I have vouchers can I purchase additional seats next to our seats?
   a. Yes, you can do that at the box office based on availability.

6. What time does the box office open?
   a. 10 am daily July 15-24 at the Utah State Fairpark.

7. When can I redeem my vouchers?
   a. Vouchers can be redeemed at Smiths Tix locations in SLC or at the box office onsite.

8. Are there fireworks every night?
   a. Yes, the Fireworks will be held in the Young Living Frontier Fun Zone after the rodeo daily.

9. What side is best to sit on to avoid the sun?
   a. The West side is ideal, but the start time of 8 pm makes the east side a great seat also.

10. What does it cost to park?
    a. Parking is $10

11. What are the conceal and carry rules for the stadium?
    a. Legal conceal and carry is allowed.

12. Can I bring my camera?
    a. No professional cameras are allowed.

13. Can I bring food/drink/water bottles into stadium?
    a. No outside food or drink is allowed

14. Can I leave tickets for will call?
    a. Yes, at the box office onsite.

15. How do I sign up my child for Mutton Busting?
    a. Signups will be available on the Days of '47 Social media Channels as well as onsite. Show up early to the Young Guns arena to get a spot!

16. Can I bring my dog?
    a. Only Registered Service Dogs are allowed

17. Is there handicapped seating/parking?
    a. Yes

18. Is a shuttle service available from parking lot?
    a. Not at this time.